CONSTITUTION OF POLITICAL SCIENCE STUDENT ASSOCIATION AT MOI UNIVERSITY

PREAMBLES

We, the members of the Association of Political Science Students at Moi University (APSOMU), united by our shared passion for the study and practice of political science, do hereby adopt and enact this Constitution as the supreme guiding framework of our association.

Recognizing the vital role of political science in shaping governance, public policy, and societal development, we commit ourselves to promoting academic excellence, intellectual inquiry, and professional growth among our members. We strive to create a dynamic platform for informed dialogue, critical debate, research, and engagement with contemporary political and social issues at local, national, and global levels.

Dedicated to nurturing responsible leadership and active citizenship, we endeavor to organize and participate in academic forums, public lectures, debates, civic engagements, and institutional collaborations that enrich the academic and practical experiences of our members.

We affirm our commitment to the principles of democracy, accountability, inclusivity, equality, integrity, and respect for diversity of thought, and we pledge to uphold these values in all our undertakings.

Guided by unity and a common purpose, we seek to advance the welfare of our members, strengthen our association, and contribute meaningfully to Moi University and the broader society.
